

Message from Sarah Bingham

Well, the hot and sunny weather has certainly made itself known recently. However, the sunny skies have not really matched the mood of the country as we seem to move from one dreadful piece of news to another, here and abroad. Terror, fires, injustice after injustice. Closer to home, the passing of Mrs. Linneth Scott and what seems like bad news for other members of the congregation. So I want to remind you of what Paul said to the believers in Corinth: "If our hope in Christ is good for this life only and no more, then we deserve more pity than anyone else in all the world. But the truth is that Christ has been raised from death, as the guarantee that those who sleep in death will also be raised." We do have a hope from God, and a peace from Jesus that is beyond understanding. It's right that we are moved and upset by bad news stories and mourn the loss of loved ones. However, that is not the whole story. There is light and love and hope in the darkness. The outpouring of help and the gathering together of different people to stand together against terror and trouble, are signs that God is still at work in the world. And we have good news of hope, which we should not be afraid to share. Who can you encourage over the next few weeks?
